

US-Venezuela Solidarity Committee Boston presents
Affirming Life in Venezuela, Seeds of Solidarity

Saturday, July 29, 2017 - 4pm - 6pm at encuentro 5

9A Hamilton Place, Boston (next to Orpheum Theater)

Sergio Reyes, Musical introduction. The music of Ali Primera

Omar Sierra, Venezuelan Consulate, Report on Situation in Venezuela

Video: Seeds of Solidarity, a report from Venezuela about their food sovereignty efforts and the importance of our people-to-people solidarity

Jorge Marin, Our committee work against U.S. intervention in Venezuela

Seeds of Solidarity for Venezuela, a project of the Venezuela Solidarity Committee of Boston, is committed to supporting a growing grassroots movement in Venezuela that has emerged with the goal to achieve food sovereignty. We provide organic heirloom seeds to farmer organizations and urban agricultural collectives that are involved in self-reliance and food security initiatives in low income rural and peri-urban areas of Venezuela's Lara State.

This is a people-to-people campaign.

Co-Sponsored by the International Action Center, CISPES Boston, the July 26 Coalition, Encuentro5, Chelsea Uniting Against the War, Socialist Party, Party for Socialism and Liberation, Communist Party - Boston Branch, Boston May Day Coalition, United for Justice with Peace, Alliance for a Secular and Democratic South Asia, Workers World Party Boston

More information: www.us-venezuelasolidarity.org